

How is Senator Barrasso Representing Wyoming's Children?

Legislation in the 111th Congress Affecting Wyoming's Children

	Yes	No
Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act: 20,379 Wyoming children with a single mother in the work force benefit from this law.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Reauthorizing the State Children's Health Insurance Program: Insures up to 5,700 additional Wyoming children.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009: The stimulus provides $0.6 billion to Wyoming for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • $110,000,000 in relief for Medicaid, which provides health care for low-income Wyoming children and seniors. • $17,000,000 in food stamps for 23,000. • $2,586,524 for child care and early learning benefiting 690 children. • $67,600,000 to prevent education cuts. • 21,000 children to benefit from the bill's tax credit provisions. • Increased unemployment benefits to 20,418. • And much more... 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
After School Programs: Provides $7,000,000 for afterschool programs to 7,000 children.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Children's Programs in the President's 2010 Budget: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tax cuts for millions of children's families • Rewarding excellent teachers • Energy assistance to low-income families • Home visitation program • Preventing teen pregnancy • And much more... 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Helping Families Save Their Homes Act: Will prevent foreclosures; there were 677 foreclosures in Wyoming in 2008, a 90.2% increase over 2007. Many losing their homes were children.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Keeping Children from Smoking: Protects children by allowing the FDA to regulate tobacco products. 1 in 15 Wyoming children report smoking in the last 30 days.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

Good enough for him...

Senator Barrasso receives comprehensive taxpayer subsidized health insurance.

...but not for her

Senator Barrasso voted against the Children's Health Insurance Program.